High quality support

The HA is the national subject association for history and has supported history teachers for over 115 years, offering trustworthy teaching insight, subject knowledge, pedagogical resources and more.

Community

Gain unparalleled access to a rich subject community of thousands of history practitioners, sharing best practice and collective knowledge.

Practical Advice

Tailored to support your first steps: from introductory articles for those new to the profession to training films and practical resources like assembly ideas.

Affordable Professional Development

Enjoy free or discounted access to a range of CPD opportunities; from webinars and online courses to history forums and HA Conference.

Strong subject knowledge

Drawing on the best international expertise and academic historians, we offer a range of support to consolidate your subject knowledge, from podcasts and webinars to local and Virtual Branch talks and 'brief histories' guides.

Supporting career progression

Through our CPD and Chartered Teacher programmes, membership forges a development path from initial teacher training through to subject leadership and mentorship.
